

Programme's mission & objectives:

The Bachelor Degree Programme in English is an unique and most popular degree programme of NSOU. In West Bengal, there is none other than NSOU who offers Bachelor Degree programme in ODL mode. The amount of seats available in conventional universities and colleges are not sufficient to meet the demand for studying English as bachelor degree programme. From its very inception NSOU has tried to address this demand and has offered BDP English course through ODL mode. The main objective of the course is to impart standard course curricula of the relevant subject which is at par to any other conventional universities. The phenomenal growth in terms of enrolment of this course shows that learners are satisfied with it at the receiving end.

Expected Programme Outcome:

The Bachelor Degree Programme in English through ODL system is so flexible in nature that one can use its advantages. Fresh learners coming from higher secondary level who have not got any chance to take admission in conventional mode are used to attached with such programmes of ODL. This programme, offered in ODL mode can definitely enhance the skill and understanding of English language & literature of the learner. The programme will enhance the English language competence and aptly enable him to the job market.